

SATURDAY 19 & SUNDAY 20 SEPTEMBER 2020, 3-6pm

the british VOICE association

BVA
@home

THE VOICE - TOP DOWN

The BVA is delighted to present this practical weekend that looks at the neuroscience for working with voice. A top-down, multidisciplinary approach to vocal pedagogy and voice rehabilitation.

Presented online via  zoom

SATURDAY 19th SEPTEMBER

SPEAKERS

- DR BORIS KLEBER (Keynote)
Voice Neurophysiology & MRI imaging
- NICOLA WYDENBACH
Sing To Beat Parkinson's
- DR MICHEL BELYK
Evolutionary Neuroscience of Voice Motor Control

- Members: £45.00
- Non-members: £60.00
- Students*: £35.00

SUNDAY 20th SEPTEMBER

SPEAKERS

- DR MARYNA KRYSHTOVA
Muscle Tension Dysphonia: fMRI studies. Brain reboot
- CHARLOTTE DAVIES
Sound processing and the voice
- HEIDI MOSS (Keynote)
Singing training for the tonally compromised

Prices are inclusive for both days
(not sold separately).

*Students must be in full-time education to qualify.

3-6pm both days

Participants will receive an email invitation 24-hours prior to the event with an URL (web address), meeting ID, and password.

Visit the BVA website for more information, to make a booking and to view a video offering help with logging on to Zoom.

www.britishvoiceassociation.org.uk