

PROVISIONAL PROGRAMME

Registration: starts 9am for those attending the AGM + Study Day starts 10am for those attending the Study Day only

- 9:30-10:15 Annual General Meeting
BVA members only
- 10:15-10:45 Coffee Break
- 10:45-11:05 Harsha Kariyawasam
Cough Syndromes and Neuropathic Cough
- 11:05-11:25 Kamran Tariq
Respiratory aspects of chronic cough
- 11:25-11:45 Jonathan Fishman
ENT assessment and management of the chronic cough, with particular focus on reflux
- 11:45-12:05 Fiona Gillies
The Speech & Language Therapist role in assessment and management of the chronic cough and contribution to the MDT team.
- 12:05-12:25 Rebecca Livingstone
The physiotherapist's role in assessment and management of chronic cough as part of the MDT team
- 12:25-13:00 Panel Discussion Chair: Ruth Epstein
- 13:00-14:00 Lunch
- 14:00-14:45 Phoene Cave
Singing for lung health and the British Lung Foundation: presentation and practical session
- 14:45-15:00 Tea
- 15:00-16:00 Mel Churcher: Gunnar Rugheimer Lecture 2017
Voice: The Cinderella of the Film Industry
Voice is little regarded in the film business, either by actors or directors. Sets are dry, smoky, unhealthy places. Unlike theatre, many actors don't see a need to warm up or cool down for screen. Directors hope to 'fix it in post'. Yet voice is vital for an actor's screen presence. Once, sound was king. Why is voice now so neglected in screen work? And what can we do?